

The Lebanon Express.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1887.

Local and General.

Ball tonight. Concert at Presbyterian church tonight.

Advertisement and the people will know where to find you.

Temperance meeting to-morrow evening. Everybody should attend.

Ex-sheriff, J. K. Charlton, of Providence called on us for a short time on Tuesday.

J. A. Beard and family, visited relatives and friends at Seio and Jefferson, this week.

Emigrant sleeping cars have been put on the O. & C. road between Portland and Astoria.

Rev. Geo. Gibbons of the First Presbyterian church of this city, returned from Tacoma, W. T., on Tuesday evening.

The Dalles Sun has been purchased by a company of democrats, and will be published in the interest of that party in Wasco county.

Two passenger trains daily each way will soon be steaming over the O. & C. railroad, and daily freight trains will be a common sight.

Rev. Rominger, pastor of the Congregational church at Albany, will preach in the First Presbyterian church of Lebanon, next Sabbath, morning and evening.

Miss Mattie Allison well known by reputation, especially to the tax-payers of Linn county, who now resides in Portland, will leave in a short time for Montana, where she will make her home in the future.

I. D. Miller, of Miller's station, this county, received $99 in premiums at the State fair on his Hereford stock, given strictly on their merit.

Mr. Miller has some of this splendid breed that he may well be proud of.

On Tuesday last, Mr. M. L. Carothers, of this city, gave us a pleasant call. Mr. Carothers is well down the other side of the divide, in life, having located near Lebanon twenty years ago. He left Shelby county, Mo., for this coast in 1864.

That potatoes will grow in the Willamette valley, we want no better evidence than to look at the one left at this office which weighs 7 lbs. This huge tuber was raised by Mr. Geo. Taylor near Lebanon, and is a fine specimen of the Peerless variety.

Mr. Ralston Cox, of Corvallis, makes an entire change in his "ad" this week. It is worthy a careful perusal on the part of all persons desiring to benefit themselves by purchasing goods at low rates. Read it and see if you can do better than by giving him a call.

Messrs. Keebler & Roberts are now ready to show customers through their new stock of groceries, provisions, confectioneries, tobaccos, cigars, etc., in the building directly opposite Churchill & Monteith's. Look out for their "ad" in this paper next week.

H. Bryant, Esq., of Albany, one of the earnest prohibitionists of Linn county called at Lebanon on Tuesday, arranging for the meetings, announcements of which are given in another place in this week's Express. Mr. Bryant is a whole team in temperance work.

A few days ago Charley Harmon sent the model of his improved stove-oven, which he has applied for a patent, to Washington. It is ingeniously constructed, evincing some fine points in mechanism. We hope Charley will realize a handsome profit on his invention.

Mrs. H. M. Leartes, who received a broken leg and other severe injuries by being thrown from a hack which ran off a high grade on the county road near Albany, a few months ago, has brought suit against Linn county to recover $5000 damages. The case will come before the October term of the circuit court.

Mrs. Riggs, state president of W. C. T. U. is out in a card recommending the women to follow the example of other states and be out in full force at the polls November 8th. No doubt they will, for who is more deeply interested in the work than the mothers and wives? The ladies of Lebanon should make a note of this fact and act accordingly.

During this week all of our merchants have again received large invoices of goods. We wonder sometimes what they do with them. But the mystery is easily explained: the people are supplied with them at such agreeable figures is the reason they disappear so quickly. Large sales, small profits, and lots of printer's ink, is the motto of the Lebanon merchant. It wins every time, too.

Mr. Joseph Nixon, formerly of the St. Charles hotel, returned from his visit East last Monday. He was gone four weeks and visited Iowa, Illinois and Missouri. Besides having a very pleasant time he learned many things of interest concerning his old "stamping ground," and is of the opinion that a great many people of the localities he was in, will immigrate to this coast, as times are dull there, the corn and other crops being very short this year.

On Saturday evening last a singing association was organized here under the management of Mr. J. W. Hemphill and Mrs. Agnes Clugston, of Chicago. Those who have taken lessons are highly pleased with the system, and the result of the work here will be the organization of an association of singers which we hope will very materially assist in the congregational singing of the several churches, and add to the interest of other entertainments.

On Wednesday afternoon last we were pleased to see Dr. Alexander, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Wealden, driving through town. The Doctor is greatly prostrated by a recent stroke of apoplexy, but is recovering as fast as the nature of the case will permit. He says that just previous to the attack, he was engaged in looking over, and re-arranging some papers requiring a stooping posture of his body, which he thinks more than anything else caused the attack, which for some three hours, threatened fatal results.

Churchill & Monteith are to be commended for their regard for home industries, as they have succeeded in contracting to Mr. Bennett, the railroad contractor, a vast amount of flour manufactured at the Lebanon Mills. Over 45,000 pounds of this flour has been shipped to the summit and Messrs. Unger & Wasson are still pushing things at the mill lively to supply the full amount required. The Lebanon brand of flour is in popular demand now and gives the very best of satisfaction—equal to any manufactured in the valley.

A short call at Hardy's jewelry store on Wednesday was made interesting by observing the numberless things he has in the toy line. Mr. Hardy has "taken time by the forelock" and displays a large assortment of holiday goods, consisting of almost everything pleasing to the eye of the old and young. Among his goods are dolls of every description, from the large 10-pounder down to the wee, little blue-eyed thing with moveable "peepers" closed when laying down, and open and sparkling when standing up. The little folk will certainly haunt Hardy's store from now till Christmas.

Boys who smoke cigarettes—and Lebanon, we regret to say, has a number of them—may be interested in knowing that those "dainty stinkers" are made from what is known in eastern factories as "snipes"—the ends of cigar stubs thrown into the gutters and gathered up by the Italian lazzaroni that make rickshaws a business. The article is flavored with double extract of assafetida and culture livers, and is most deadly in its influence upon the nerves and brain. If boys will smoke they ought to use cigars or decent tobacco, and not take the chances of destroying their eyesight and paralyzing their brain by sucking these poisonous "snipes."

A ladies purse 8 miles from Lebanon. Owner can get it by describing it and paying for this advertisement. Address J. B. Heninger, box 19, Silverton, Oregon.

An Important Meeting. At a meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Lebanon, last Tuesday afternoon, it was decided to adjourn to meet in the afternoon of Tuesday next, October 25, at 4:30 o'clock, in the Principal's room of the public school building. All the temperance women of Lebanon, whether they belong to the W. C. T. U. or not, are earnestly requested to be present at 4:30 sharp, as the principle of important work will be discussed at that time. By order of the president.

Reception. On Wednesday last many of the good people of Lebanon were seen wending their way to the new M. E. parsonage with their well-filled baskets, containing everything incident to housekeeping. In the evening the report to these proceedings was revealed by an invitation to attend a reception at the residence of Mr. Z. T. Bryant, in honor of Mrs. Skipworth, wife of Rev. Walton Skipworth, of the M. E. church, who arrived on the afternoon train. While regretting our inability to be present, we are pleased to learn the affair was a very pleasant one, and again take pleasure in welcoming Rev. and Mrs. Skipworth to their new home, wishing Walton success in every good word and work.

Temperance Meeting. Everybody, especially anti-prohibitionists, are invited to attend the temperance rally at the First Presbyterian church, to-morrow (Sat.) evening, at 7 o'clock. Speakers from different places throughout the county, will address the people. Remember, prohibitionists, there remains yet a few days to work, and we would urge upon the temperance people of Lebanon and vicinity the importance of strengthening our ranks for the great battle in favor of the home and against the rum power on the 8th of next month. Come to the meeting, and if you have any saloon friends, bring them with you. See that Lebanon precinct gives a good majority for the amendment. There will also be a meeting at Shedd, to-morrow evening.

Incidaries in Lane County. Sunday evening about 11 o'clock, says the Eugene Guard, the barn on the place of Mr. E. Woolridge, about one mile north of Smithfield, was burned to the ground, and also a lot of harness that was stored in the same belonging to the renter, Mr. D. West. The barn was insured for $500 in a company represented by W. S. Lee, of Junction. The horses that were in the barn had been turned out, or had got loose and escaped. It was evidently the work of an incendiary, as a bunch of rags, saturated with kerosene, was found in the barn, that had not been entirely consumed. The incendiary had also attempted to burn the dwelling but failed. Mr. Woolridge was at the house of another renter, some few miles away, being sick at the time. An attempt, we learn, was made to burn the same property about one year ago.

A Dishonest Drummer. On the 20th of September one Furey, a traveling salesman in the employ of Lang & Co., Portland, sold E. McCally of this place a bill of goods amounting to $60.00, for which he received the money and receipted for. On October 1st, Furey called on Mr. McCally again and was favored with an order amounting to $65.00, received the money which he did not receipt for. As the goods did not arrive in due time Mr. McCally wrote to Lang & Co. and in reply they stated that Furey had been discharged from their employ on September 25; that our merchants' letter disclosed the fact that the festive Furey had fraudulently swindled him out of $65.00, and urged Mr. McCally to lay the case before District Attorney Blackburn, which he did on Tuesday last. But where is Furey? Probably on his journey East, and as he flies over the rail is forcing his attention upon the ladies just as Furey-ously as ever.

A Pleasant Meeting.

On Sunday last the spiritualists of this community held another of their meetings at the residence of Mr. John Reed on Hamilton creek. Thirty-eight persons were in attendance, and much interest was manifested. The exhortations were earnest, appealing to all to live in the fear of God, that the future life may be one of happiness in the great hereafter. This in itself is a grand teaching. Phenomenal Spiritualism has its mysteries, and is open to investigation. That departed friends communicate with their loved ones on this side of the River, is not to all persons a practical truth, but the theory no doubt is worthy attention, and like all other religious theories, should not be condemned until thoroughly investigated. If there is any one thing more than another which gives this set the prominence it enjoys, it is the character of the persons who embrace the doctrine. Some of the very best people—those of intelligence, with excellent virtues, have devoted their lives to the promulgation of this doctrine, and died in the blissful hope of immortality. Claiming Christ as the example of creatures divine, if they, or any other denomination of men and women follow what to them, seems to be His precepts, they are certainly entitled to a share of the regard extended to those of our community who are trying to do good.

The meeting on Sunday last to which we were an invited guest, was a pleasant one, socially, as well as otherwise. At 12:30 the tables were spread and an excellent dinner was served, and we doubt not the ladies will be of the opinion that we came nearer doing the bountiful repast justice, than the report we herewith give of the occasion.

School Report. Report of the Lebanon Public School for the month ending Oct. 14, 1887.

FIRST DEPARTMENT. Number of boys enrolled, 26; number of girls enrolled, 24; total number enrolled, 50. Average daily attendance, 48.35.

The names of those pupils whose average in all of their studies and deportment is 90 per cent or over, are as follows: Louie Peterson, Frankie Burkhardt, Neta Crouch, Della Hardy, Maggie Cotton, Ora Harkness, Johnnie Morgan, Odell Peterson, Eddie Guy, Fay Donaca, George Unger, Johnnie Ralston, Melvin Arnet.

MISS FANNIE GRIGGS, Teacher. SECOND DEPARTMENT. Number of boys enrolled, 11; number of girls enrolled, 21; total number, 32. Average daily attendance 27.

The names of those pupils whose average in all of their studies and deportment is 90 per cent or over, are as follows: Fannie Reynolds, Hilda Etkins, Nellie Burroughs, Bertie Smith, Anna Talbot, Jessie McCally, Maude Nickerson, Willie Donaca, Merton Burroughs.

The average daily attendance in both of the departments has been very good when we consider the fact that number of the pupils enrolled were not members of the school until the second or third week. At this season of the year there should be no excuse why the youngest pupils should be absent except that of sickness. It is not only an injury to those who are absent but to the whole school, and is also a great annoyance to the teacher. Parents will please see that their children are not absent.

CHAS. S. HUNT, Principal. Wheat, Oats and Hops.

Wheat—Quiet and rather easy markets abroad, those of this side showing no decided strength. Our own rules very quiet, the bulk of business not being increased to a marked extent. From all parts of the Northwest reports are of heavy deliveries of wheat at shipping points. East of the mountains rail lines are pushed for cars to accommodate shippers, and some points have not been able to get a promise of cars to carry stock sold. This is especially so with regard to flour. Throughout the valley there is a firm feeling and sellers are getting 64c at Albany. The valley markets show a range that would make the Portland figure $1.18 @ 1.20 per cental.

Oats—Light movement and quiet market. San Francisco is very irregular; quote Oregon $1.30 @ 1.37.

Hops—Buyers' ideas are not over 12c and this is buying very little just now. While the outlook in this line is not equal to what it has been in some former years, yet, we are to a great extent the arbiters of our prices. In San Francisco some sales have been made at figures which Oregon hop raisers would hardly think of taking and, yet, they are thought to be fair. Oregon and Washington raised hops are far superior to those grown in our sister state to the south, and as a consequence we may expect better figures. This first shipment of forty-five bales weighing eight thousand pounds, from Salem, netted the grower 12 cents there or almost $1000.

Tillamook County. Mr. A. Compton, formerly a resident of this city, but now of Wood's, Tillamook Co., has been here for the past few days visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Compton, among other things is engaged in bee culture, and tells us that this year his bees produced a surplus of 1500 pounds of the finest quality of honey from fifty stands, with an increase of forty stands. He says his community is rapidly settling up; they now have a thriving school district with three months' school during the past summer, and will have a three months' term this winter. There is some good government land yet to be taken near where he lives, and that Tillamook county, so long isolated, gives the best evidences of prosperity, as another year or two will most certainly witness the building of one or more railroads into the county. As a stock and dairy country Tillamook county probably excels any other part of Oregon, while it contains the very best of timber on the coast. There are places of resort, too, awaiting only better facilities of getting there to bring them into prominence. Netart's bay, will undoubtedly attract many tourists, an account of the excellent quality and abundance of clams, oysters and other attractions it possesses.

Family Injured.

The many friends of Mr. James Imbrie, of Washington county, will regret to hear that he met with an accident at The Dalles on Friday last and was so severely injured that it is deemed impossible that he can recover. He had been feeling better of late than for two years past, and thought he would make a trip to his cattle range in the Yakima country. He thought he would like to travel the old route over the Snake mountain once more, so he went from here by boat last Friday, taking his horse and buggy along. While driving from the boat into The Dalles in the evening, in the darkness the old gentleman ran the wheels of the buggy up on a side walk and was thrown out, striking on his shoulder and side, and was severely injured internally. His friends here received a dispatch on Sunday morning stating that he was dying. His brother Robert and his daughter, Mrs. Macbeth, at once started for The Dalles. On their arrival he was able to recognize them, but has been in a stupor ever since, and the doctors give no hope that he will recover. Mr. Imbrie is one of the early pioneer settlers of Washington county, and one of those who went from this state to the mines in California in '49. He is well known and respected throughout the state. The ranks of the band of pioneers who early settled Washington county have been sadly thinned of late years. Among those well known who have crossed the lead divide within a few years are Joe Meek, Ulysses Jackson, Jacob Hoover, Ben Cornelius, Cary, Conkling, Freeman, Elliott and others.—Oregonian.

"A Fair Hearing and a Full Discussion." The citizens of the different precincts of this county are invited to public discussions on the leading issue of the coming election—the prohibitory amendment, at the following places and dates, under the direction of the Linn County Temperance League. Speakers will be present from different places throughout the state and county:

Waterloo, Monday, Oct. 24, at 2 p.m. Sodaville, Monday, Oct. 24, at 2 p.m. Sweet Home, Tuesday, Oct. 25 at 7 p.m. Brush Creek, Wednesday, Oct. 26, at 2 p.m. Crawfordville, Wednesday, Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. Brownsville, Thursday, Oct. 27, at 7 p.m. Center School House, Friday, Oct. 28 at 2 p.m. Harrisburg, Friday, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. Lake Creek, Saturday, Oct. 29, at 2 p.m. Halsey, Saturday, Oct. 29, at 7 p.m. Seio Notes.

Not a vacant house to be found in Seio. E. T. Fisher, county surveyor, was in the city last week.

Dr. H. H. King contemplates building a new dwelling house this fall.

O. B. Cyrus, the popular clerk at Johnson & Shelton's, contemplates taking a course in the Portland business college.

At the last city council the recorder was authorized to sign contract with F. C. Portland for water supplies for fire protection, for five years at the rate of $100 per year for the city of Seio.

Melt Shelton and Owen Cyrus bought them one of the finest dogs ever brought into the city. We were unable to find out the kind of curious family it was named after. A. M.

CLOAKS! CLOAKS! CLOAKS! We will sell our entire stock of Cloaks and Jackets AT COST for the next THREE DAYS, parties needing anything in this line can save money by calling on us.

Thompson & Waters. Every wife and mother in the country should know the great value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, as a blood purifier. It gives tone, health, and strength to the vital organs, corrects all irregularities, and expels impurities from the system. Young and old use it. Price $1.

Mother Cary's Gumtree Cough Syrup does not sicken the stomach, or bind the bowels, safe for a child or an adult, and will be found the best preparation for a Cough, Cold, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough or Croup and any affection of the throat and lungs.

J. A. Beard, agent for Lebanon. Money to loan, by Curran & Monteith, Albany, Oregon.

For a good meal, go to the City Restaurant Albany. Meals 25 cents. If MARRIED.

JETTER-BATES—At the residence of the bride's parents, near Seio, Linn county, Oregon, October 12, 1887, by Rev. C. Sperry, of Brownsville, Mr. J. B. JETTER, of Stanton, Marion county, Or., and Miss LILLIAN BATES, of Seio.

The happy couple have the congratulations of a host of friends, both in Marion and Linn counties. As the river no longer divides them, may they live a long and happy life. H. E. J.

KEEHLER-SMITH—At the residence of the bride's mother, in Linn county, Oregon, October 12, 1887, by Rev. James Hickman, Mr. E. E. KEEHLER and Miss ANNE SMITH, both of Linn county, Oregon.

C. B. MONTAGUE'S COLUMN.

Neither Montague or his clerks get time to accumulate much flesh on account of being kept on the knee, not waiting on customers. He has no flitting weights to amuse, but he does the heavy weights to someone, and his low prices. Always go to Montague, we are not too overwhelmed with fat to wait on you and will you our good fresh stock at the very smallest living rates.

W.L. DOUGLAS'S $300 SHOE. BEST TANNERY CALF. BOTTOM SEWED. BEST MADE. BEST FIT. BEST VALUE.

Dry Goods Department. We have just received our full stock which is complete in all lines, embracing new dress goods in silk and wool suitings of every shade; cashmere, ladies cloth, serges, etc.; fall gingham, new prints, yarns in German worsted suzany and factory blankets, combed, flannels in feet every thing in this line which we are prepared to dispense at lowest prices.

Fancy Goods Department. We have now in stock the finest line of ribbons that has ever been brought to Lebanon in plain plaid edge and the crown edge or new black (something new,) also our line of hosiery, bustles, hose supporters, wool mitts, Jap silk handkerchiefs, buttons, brass etc. is more complete than ever before.

Clothing Department. We have received this week a very fine selection of youth's and men's suits of the latest style and patterns which we shall dispose of at lowest prices.

Gents Furnishing Goods Department. We have an elegant line in gents furnishing goods as we always do for the fall trade, such as heavy sock wear for the young men, suspenders in all grades from 25c to 75c. One-half hour the famous Rockford III. make, which is the best that comes in this market. Silk and linen handkerchiefs, fancy and plain neck wear, collars and cuffs in reworked and plain.

Boot and Shoe Department. We have a large trade in this department, because we carry nothing but the best goods and when we sell a pair of boots or shoes we always give our customers good value for their money, thereby retaining their trade. Our sales of the W. L. Douglas shoe has been beyond our expectations and still increasing. John Mueller's solar tipped goods for children and babies, received the great medal at the New Orleans fair, as the best in the United States; they are the best shoe that can be obtained; there is no better made; we are the sole agents in this city. Our Day sewed goods have a big run for style and durability; they can not be beat, and as easy as a custom-made. Do not forget the old reliable Buckingham & Hecht boots and shoes, good honest goods; no shoddy in them. When you want a good pair of shoes or boots come in and see us.

Crocery Department. Our new line of datestare has arrived and is ready for sale; this is something new, ladies, come in and see it.

Grocery Department. The prettiest thing yet in laking powder prices is the crystal puff glassware that we are giving away with our silver star laking powder; a piece with each can.
